INSTRUCTIONS

1. These document requests are continuing to require supplemental responses as specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e).
2. In producing documents and other materials, you are requested to furnish all documents or things in your possession, custody or control, regardless of whether such documents or materials are possessed by: you; your directors, officers, agents, representatives, subsidiaries, managing agents, affiliates, or investigators; or your attorneys or their agents, employees, representatives or investigators.

EXHIBIT 1

3. Documents are to be produced in full; redacted documents will not constitute compliance with this request. If any requested document or thing cannot be produced in full without reflecting attorney-client communications or attorney work product, produce it to the extent possible, indicating which document, or portion of that document, is being withheld, and the reason that document is being withheld.

4. In producing documents, you are requested to produce the original of each document requested together with all non-identical copies and drafts of that document. If the original of any document cannot be located, a copy shall be provided in lieu thereof, and shall be legible and bound or stapled in the same manner as the original.

5. Pursuant to Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, produce all documents as they are kept in the usual course of business.

6. All documents shall be produced in the file folder, envelope or other container in which the documents are kept or maintained by you. If, for any reason, the container cannot be produced, produce copies of all labels or other identifying marks.

7. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the department, branch or office in whose possession it was located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found and the business address of each document's custodian.

8. Documents attached to each other should not be separated.

9. Documents not otherwise responsive to this discovery request shall be produced if such documents mention, discuss, refer to, or explain the documents that are called for by this discovery request, or if such documents are attached to documents called for by this discovery request and constitute routing slips, transmittal memoranda or letters, comments, evaluations or similar materials.

10. If you claim the attorney-client privilege, or any other privilege or work product protection for any document, that document need not be produced, but you shall provide a privilege log including all of the information required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 26.2. and any other applicable law of this Circuit concerning that document.

11. Unless a different time period is set forth in a specific document request, and subject to Your obligation to supplement Your responses, these requests seek production of documents dated, created, sent or received between January 1, 2011 and the date of Your response.

12. To the extent that English language translations exist for any foreign-language documents responsive to any document request set forth herein, the English translations (clearly identified as such) shall be produced in addition to the original foreign language documents.

13. All documents shall be produced electronically and shall be Bates labeled and produced in a format agreed upon by counsel. In the absence of an agreement, documents should be produced as single page tiffs (except that excel spreadsheets should be produced in native format); with OCR at the document level; and with the following load files: LFP, OPT and DAT. The following metadata shall be provided: BEGDOC, ENDDOC, BEGATTACH, ENDATTACH, PageCt, Author, To, Cc, Bcc, Custodian, Date Sent, Date Received, Date Created, Subject, FileName, DateLastMod, and MD5Hash.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION
